These questions tell us something about how you respond in challenging situations. Please answer them using examples from your experiences in academic, social or working life

1. Please tell us about experiences and people that have over time shaped your decision to consider a management career within Unilever and in your chosen function in particular. What efforts have you made to test out your choices?(300 word limit imposed) *

Unilever isn't about people as the organization itself is such a success, where someone could develop, learn and innovate. the idea of being a member of such a winning team is the ultimate motivation for any career oriented calibre.

2. Using an example of a time when you were in a new environment and had to achieve a task, please describe a) how you established and used a network of contacts, and b) how you set about influencing people, to help you achieve your task. (500 word limit imposed) *

In my work in Radio English Commerce I have managed lots of relations with members and sponsors to develop a good database that will make it easier to extend our ground and reach more listeners.

3. Tell us about an occasion when you have taken the initiative to learn and develop yourself in significantly new ways. Why did you want to do this, what did you do and what was the result?(300 word limit imposed) *

I have always been passionate about learning and I believe that self development is not the goal, it's the process through our journey in life, we keep on learning and this adds up to us as business professional, someday leaders and simply Human beings.

4. Tell us about a time when you saw the opportunity to really make a difference for the future of an activity, team or organization. What did you do, what obstacles did you overcome, and what happened as a result? (300 word limit imposed) *

Having such a little experience as mine, I am still waiting for this opportunity to come.

5. Tell us about a time when you have had to analyse and understand a complex situation in order to make decisions and put a plan into action. What did you do and what was the outcome? (300 word limit imposed) *

Many times in our charity projects with different agencies, organizing events and analyzing budgets.
