No, i don't have non-academic activities.

These questions tell us something about how you respond in challenging situations. Please answer them using examples from your experiences in academic, social or working life

1. Please tell us about experiences and people that have over time shaped your decision to consider a management career within Unilever and in your chosen function in particular. What efforts have you made to test out your choices?(300 word limit imposed) *

Mainly the doctors and TA's have a great impact on learning me how to manage or deal in any situation. And Of course The daily situations happens in my life learn me how to deal with different people in different situations.

2. Using an example of a time when you were in a new environment and had to achieve a task, please describe a) how you established and used a network of contacts, and b) how you set about influencing people, to help you achieve your task. (500 word limit imposed) *

When i went a training in PWC for me it was the first time to me to work in a new environment , I learn to finish my tasks quickly and concentrate on what i'm doing and i treat people and colleagues there with a friendly way.

3. Tell us about an occasion when you have taken the initiative to learn and develop yourself in significantly new ways. Why did you want to do this, what did you do and what was the result?(300 word limit imposed) *

As i mentioned before that i learned lots of things in PWC from dealing with different people and in new environment.

4. Tell us about a time when you saw the opportunity to really make a difference for the future of an activity, team or organization. What did you do, what obstacles did you overcome, and what happened as a result? (300 word limit imposed) *

In PWC it gives me a great experience that will benefit me in the future. The obstacles i overcome there that the environment is not friendly but i tried as much as i can to adapt with this environment and be friendly with them. And i think i did it as in the evaluation form in the company they gave me an excellent in how friendly i am with people.

5. Tell us about a time when you have had to analyse and understand a complex situation in order to make decisions and put a plan into action. What did you do and what was the outcome? (300 word limit imposed) *

In the university when their is group projects or situations happened in daily life that i have to take decisions. I have to take a decision and bare its consequences.
