These questions tell us something about how you respond in challenging situations. Please answer them using examples from your experiences in academic, social or working life

1. Please tell us about experiences and people that have over time shaped your decision to consider a management career within Unilever and in your chosen function in particular. What efforts have you made to test out your choices?(300 word limit imposed) *

1) Experience: Through out my study at university i had a passion towards the real life cases that we use to solve - in particular - cases that i myself experience daily which made me eager to enter this field even before my graduation. 2) People: Dr. Raghdah which was the lecturer of introduction to management in my first semester, she showed me how beautiful is to love your work and field and also how it is important to study through out your life and that learning should stop only when someone pass away. 3) My efforts: I started to take online courses to add to my knowledge. I also started to read more and i applied to different internships in order to gain a lot of experience.

2. Using an example of a time when you were in a new environment and had to achieve a task, please describe a) how you established and used a network of contacts, and b) how you set about influencing people, to help you achieve your task. (500 word limit imposed) *

When i became in charge of a whole class of kids a) At first i tried to know the mentality of each child and think how to cope with it, then i started to act on that basis which gave me a huge advantage and made them obey my orders and at the same time enjoy there classes. b) I talked with my colleagues at work and convinced them with what i did and they tried what i said and it actually worked with them also.

3. Tell us about an occasion when you have taken the initiative to learn and develop yourself in significantly new ways. Why did you want to do this, what did you do and what was the result?(300 word limit imposed) *

When i entered university i promised myself to work and use every chance in order to develop myself because i knew that whatever i change and whatever i keep will shape my personality and attitude which could hardly be changed later and that is important because it will directly affect both my personal life and my professional career. The results were good and i am still working on the rest till i graduate. I achieved a lot of experience and knowledge. I also changed a lot in my personality in order to handle various situations.

4. Tell us about a time when you saw the opportunity to really make a difference for the future of an activity, team or organization. What did you do, what obstacles did you overcome, and what happened as a result? (300 word limit imposed) *

My team at the human resources project, the whole group did not know each other, there were a lot of arguments and different point of view s. I tried to deal with each member alone, i also started to explain their point of view to each other and that was actually what i overcame (group arguments). The result was that we finished the project successively and some of the group members became friends.

5. Tell us about a time when you have had to analyse and understand a complex situation in order to make decisions and put a plan into action. What did you do and what was the outcome? (300 word limit imposed) *

During my training i knew that i should teach the kids a dance and that they should master it as they are going to perform it in front of their parents. At first i thought it was an easy task but later when i told the class about that announcement i heard different responses. The girls were really excited about the idea while the boys started arguing and refusing to participate in the show. I started to convince them but then i got an idea which was getting my male colleagues in order to show the boys that it is okay to dance and that men could dance and the result was that one by one started to join us and at last the show was made perfectly.
