These questions tell us something about how you respond in challenging situations. Please answer them using examples from your experiences in academic, social or working life

1. Please tell us about experiences and people that have over time shaped your decision to consider a management career within Unilever and in your chosen function in particular. What efforts have you made to test out your choices?(300 word limit imposed) *

The sessions that Unilever presents on campus and the various examples we take in classes about UNILEVER as a company, makes me passionate about pursuing a management career within UNILEVER.

2. Using an example of a time when you were in a new environment and had to achieve a task, please describe a) how you established and used a network of contacts, and b) how you set about influencing people, to help you achieve your task. (500 word limit imposed) *

When I was chosen as a secretariat to High school students to give sessions on business and business planning. My target was to make at least one person look up to me and set an example to them. At the end of the conference I received very nice feedback and still in touch with some of my delegates. Through this journey we had to interview many people and contact acquaintances to give sessions.

3. Tell us about an occasion when you have taken the initiative to learn and develop yourself in significantly new ways. Why did you want to do this, what did you do and what was the result?(300 word limit imposed) *

It is not a past event but a current one. I am considering learning about consultancy and one of the ways I could have a good chance of learning is by developing my skills to solve case problems at interviews since it will benefit me on all levels.

4. Tell us about a time when you saw the opportunity to really make a difference for the future of an activity, team or organization. What did you do, what obstacles did you overcome, and what happened as a result? (300 word limit imposed) *

One of my acquaintances wanted to open a beauty salon after working at several ones for long time. Along with couple of her friends, we helped her pick a place and develop the place and give her ideas and we are still suggesting small steps to grow the place. The obstacles are her way of management and limited financing and the fact that she is a sole proprietor. Her business is going fine but still needs a lot of work.

5. Tell us about a time when you have had to analyse and understand a complex situation in order to make decisions and put a plan into action. What did you do and what was the outcome? (300 word limit imposed) *

When I was working at Junior Enterprise office as a consultant for SME to help them with business plans that would improve their performance, we had to look deeply at the business and its surroundings and the competitors and achieve a plan that is feasible for them to execute. It was successful and the case I was assigned to with my group ended improving drastically and now one of the well known online jewelers.
